Time : 2023-06-10

Location : Hsu Shou-Chien International Conference Center

In collaboration with Center for Holistic Education, OICSA held an orientation for junior study abroad program in 2023 last weekend, with over 150 parents, students, professors, and staff in attendance. The orientation began with an opening speech by Director of the Center, Dr. Hui-Huang Hsu, Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Hui emphasized that Holistic Education is a unique feature of Tamkang university which has extensive experiences in guiding students for their junior study abroad. Following Dr. Hui's speech, Executive Secretary of the Center, Dr. Cheng-Hao Pao, Dean of College of International Affairs, elaborated the philosophy of Holistic Education and the design of the junior study abroad program.

After a short break, the study abroad advisors from four departments respectively conducted group discussions, sharing information about partnership universities with parents. The orientation concluded with blessings from OICSA and Center for Holistic Education, wishing the students who study abroad in the 2023-2024 academic year a joyful and safe journey.

The evaluation and survey results from the parents who participated in the briefing are as follows: The schedule was rated with a score of 5 in terms of appropriateness, the convenience of the venue received a satisfaction score of 5.6, the smoothness of the process was rated with a satisfaction score of 5.6, the content of the Orientation of Junior Study Abroad received a satisfaction score of 5, the content of the Study Abroad and Exchange School Briefing for Each Department's Junior-Year Students also received a satisfaction score of 5, and the overall satisfaction was rated with a score of 5.1.

During the briefing, a majority of parents indicated that expressed that they gained useful information about studying abroad and exchange programs, such as details about the schools, experiences from senior students, campus safety, student insurance, accommodations, and credit transfer issues. Many parents suggested that future briefings be held earlier and that a Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) section should be set up on the website, which would enable students and their parents to enhance their comprehension and make timely preparations, fostering a sense of reassurance.
